The Friends of the John C. Hart Memorial Library is a non-profit organization comprised of community residents who share a commitment to promoting and preserving a strong local library.

Your gift to the Friends of the John C. Hart Library provides essential support that allows the Library to bring free, new, innovative programs while continuing to deliver old favorites as well.

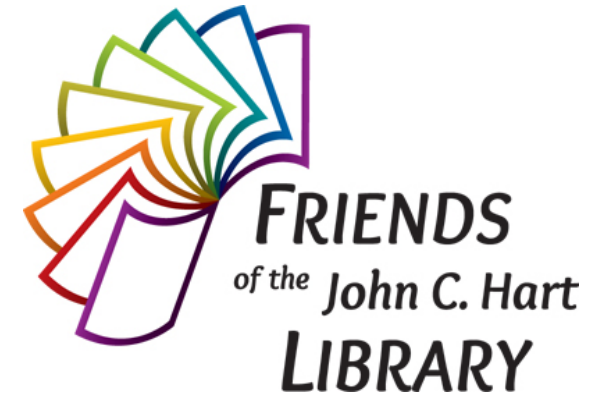

Our mission includes:

- Informing and engaging the community as to our library's resources, services, and needs.
- Sponsoring and engaging volunteer services for the library.
- Sponsoring cultural programs and exhibits.
- Purchasing items for the library above and beyond the library's ordinary budget.
- Encouraging sustaining gifts to the library.
